Home/school Partnership Agreement

Child's promise

If you would like to be part of our Circle of Friends, you need to promise that you will:

- work hard and always do your very best
- be a friend to all other children by helping them to be happy and caring about their feelings
- be polite and helpful to everyone
- take care of all the things you use in school when you are working and playing
- take care to look after the school buildings

School's promise

To ensure that we support the child and parent through their time at Newport Infants, we promise to:

- provide a warm, secure, friendly and caring environment for children to come to learn readily and easily
- provide the best possible educational opportunities to allow full potential to be achieved
- feedback to parents at regular intervals about their child's progress in all areas of their learning

Parent's promise

To ensure that you support your child's education, you promise to:

- ensure your child attends school regularly and inform the school of any reason for absence as soon as possible
- keep regular communication with the school
- discuss any matters concerning their child's progress, health or happiness
- attend parents' evenings, workshops, functions whenever possible
- give regular opportunities for home learning
- support the school's behaviour and anti-bullying policy
